SONG FOR THINKERS.

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

Take the Spade of Perseverance,
Dig the Field of Progress wide;
Every rotten root of faction
Hurry out and cast aside;
Every stubborn weed of error;
Every seed that hurts the soil;
Tares, whose very growth is terror—
Dig them out whate'er the toil!

Give the stream of Education
Broader channel, bolder force;
Hurl the stones of Prosecution
Out where'er they block its course;
Seek for strength in self-exertion;
Work and still have faith to wait;
Close the crooked gate to fortune;
Make the road to honor straight!

Men are agents for the future;
As they work, so ages win
Either harvest of advancement,
Or the products of their sin!
Follow out true cultivation;
Widen Education's plan;
From the majesty of nature
Teach the Majesty of Man!

Take the Spade of Perseverance,
Dig the Field of Progress wide;
Every bar to true Instruction
Carry out and cast aside;
Feed the Plant whose Fruit is Wisdom;
Cleanse from crime the common sod;
So that from the Throne of Heaven
It may bear the glance of God.

To Unmarried Ladies.

The following items of advice to ladies remaining in a state of single blessedness are extracted from the manuscript of an old dowager:—

If you have blue eyes, languish.

If black eyes, affect spirit.

If you have pretty feet, wear short petticoats.

If you are the least doubtful as to that point, wear them long.

If you have good teeth, don't forget to laugh now and then.

If you have bad ones, you must only simper.

While you are young, sit with your face to the light.

When you are a little advanced, sit with your back to the window.

If you have a bad voice always speak in a low tone.

If it is acknowledged that you have a fine voice, never speak in a high tone.

If you dance well, dance seldom.

If you dance ill, never dance at all.

If you sing well, make no puerile excuses.

If you sing indifferently, hesitate not a moment when you are asked, for few persons are competent judges of singing, but every one is sensible to the desire to please.

If in conversation you think a person wrong, rather hint a difference of opinion than offer a contradiction.

It is always in your power to make a friend by smiles; what folly to make enemies by frowns.

When you have an opportunity to praise, do it with all your heart.

When you are forced to blame, do it with reluctance.

If you are envious of another woman, never show it but by allowing her every good quality and perfection except those which she really possesses.

If you wish to let the world know you are in love with a particular man, treat him with formality, and every one else with ease and freedom.

If you are disposed to be pettish or insolent, it is better to exercise your ill-humor on your dog, or your cat, or your servant, than on your friend.

If you would preserve beauty, rise early.

If you would preserve esteem, be gentle.

If you would obtain power, be condescending.

If you would live happy, endeavor to promote the happiness of others.

A Sad Accident by Fire.—On Saturday night, the 7th of March, as Thomas Phair, of Johnsville, Bucks county, was returning home from John K. Spencer's, of Warminster, his clothes took fire from a spark from his pipe, and the wind being high at the time, he was unable to put it out. He took off his coat, and thought to throw himself into a pond of water that was near by, but the ice was too thick for him to break, when he thought he would return to Mr. Spencer's, a distance of about two hundred yards. Mr. S. happened to go out after he started, and saw the fire and heard his cries for help, when he took a bucket of water and ran to meet him, which he did about half way.

He threw the water on him and put the fire out, but his vest and under clothes were burned off down to his waist. Mr. S. assisted him to his house, when Dr. Wm. M. Mann, of Hartsville, was called in, and found him to be badly burnt on the breast, left side and back. After his wounds were dressed, he was taken to his home at his son-in-law's, Charles Trimmers, at Johnsville, where he died on Monday, the 16th inst., at 9 o'clock, A. M., after much suffering, which he bore patiently to the last, being fully sensible of his condition. He was about 68 years of age, and came to America about thirty years ago from Ireland, and had proved himself to be a good citizen, and was a great friend to his adopted country.—Doylestown (Pa) Democrat.

Narrow Escape from Savages.

Mr. William Bailey, formerly of Lynnville, Ogle county, in this State, called upon us last evening and related the following thrilling and remarkable narrative. From his description of places and things which he saw, we are perfectly satisfied that his statement is correct in every respect. A gentleman of this city who had travelled over the country he describes, assures us that no person except he had visited these places and witnessed what he describes, could have related truthfully what he related. He converses in several different Indian languages, and appears to have paid close attention to what he saw passing around him during his sojourn among the savages. He looked well and hearty, and with the exception of his hands being torn by some wounds from a tomahawk, he seems to have suffered no damage. He left on the cars last evening for Logan county, where his mother resides.

Mr. Baily left here some eighteen months ago with a party of nine persons, to engage in driving teams from the Gulf of Mexico to the Rio Grande. They landed at Indianola, and hired to a man by the name of Ross to drive team for him. They drove to Nucas river, and camped there. Whilst asleep their mules were stolen by the Indians. They prepared the next day to follow them, and came up with them at sunset. They saw six Indians, fired at and killed them all, when they were attacked by about 300, who were secreted in the woods. They immediately fired on the white men, killing all but Mr. Bailey whom they took a prisoner.—They then took him back to the wagons, which they plundered of all the arms and amaunition in them. They took two boxes of government Colt's revolvers and twenty kegs of powder.—The prisoner was stripped of all his clothing and bound hand and foot upon a pony. They then started for their encampment in the Witchataw mountains, which place they reached after eleven days hard riding.

They remained in camp about a week, and then started on a robbing expedition to attack a train on the Santa Fe Road. They remained about five days waiting, when a merchant train came along. They proceeded to surprise the train, and killed every person with it, took the goods and mules belonging to the train, and started for Kickapoo settlement, traded off the mules for ponies and returned to the Witchataw Mountains.

The prisoner was kept strictly confined during the day, and was tied up every night with pieces of raw hide, by the hands, to the limb of a tree, as high up as he could reach and stand on the ground. During the day he was allowed to lie down and sleep a few hours. During the time Mr. Baily was with them they went on five robbing expeditions, taking him always along with them. The last merchant train they robbed they took two men prisoners, who had bravely defended themselves till their weapons were all discharged, and who had killed twelve of the red skins. These two were taken and tied to a stake and skinned alive. Mr. Baily was placed close to them and compelled to witness this horrible scene. Every time he would close his eyes they would punch him with spears and bayonets until he would open them, and look on this picture of revolting horror.—They then took the skin, reeking with warm blood, and slapped him around the face with it, covering him with blood, and telling him if he tried to escape this would be his fate.

One of their excursions was against the United States mail wagons. They killed the five men with them, tore open the letters, got out the money, and after cutting out the pictures from the bank bills, threw them away. They kept all the newspapers with pictures in them—throwing everything away that was not embellished.

For three nights after this they did not tie him up but kept guard over him. The third night they had a big war dance, and, in the excitement, forgot Mr. Baily. While dancing around their fire in front of the tent, he crawled out under the back of the tent, seized one of the ponies and escaped. He was soon missed, and was followed for five days. At the expiration of that time they came so close on him that they fired at him, which obliged him to leave his horse and take to the mountains. Fortunately he found a small cave just large enough to crawl into, in which place he remained for a day and a half, the Indians being so near him that he could hear their footsteps as they searched for him.

He remained in this position until he was assured that his pursuers had left, when he emerged from his concealment, and made a straight shoot for the Kickapoo settlement, about 600 miles distant. In about a month he reached the longed for point, where he hoped to find friends and assistance. Nor was he disappointed in this. He was kindly furnished food and clothing by the Kickapoos. He had subsisted, for the whole month previous to this on birch roots, which he dug with his hands on his lonely march. While with the Camanches he was fed on raw horse flesh. Not a very pleasant diet, truly. The Kickapoos treated him very kindly, and showed him on his long journey to civilization.

After leaving them, four day's journey bro't him to the Chickasaw's camp: from thence he proceeded to the Choctaw nation, who treated him in the most humane manner. He journeyed on to the Shawnee nation, where he was welcomed by the best they had in their lodges. Leaving them, he next reached the Cherokees, and then made for Missouri, which State he made some 20 miles north of the Neosho. From thence he came to St. Louis, and then to this city; having travelled constantly and steadily on foot for over two months.

As stated before, he left here last evening for Logan county, where he has a mother anxiously waiting his return. Mr. Baily is a young man, about 22 years of age, and born on the 4th of July, our national day of Independence. He says he is an independent man, but did not feel so at the time he was witnessing the horrid murder of his fellow men among the savages of the Far West. After eighteen months' hardships and privations, he finds himself once more among civilized people, and in a land of peace and happiness. We should suppose by this time he would be glad to locate in Suckerdom, and "roam no more."

LATE FROM NICARAGUA.

Battle between Gen. Walker and the Costa Rican Forces—Defeat of the Allies with great Slaughter!

New York, April 2—The steamship Texas, from San Juan, Nicaragua, with dates to the 20th March, and Aspinwall to the 23d, arrived this evening.

The Texas connected at Aspinwall with the Orizaba. She brings nothing late from California.

The advices from Rivas, the headquarters of Gen. Walker, are to the 18th March.

The Purser of the Orizaba, reports Walker's army in good condition, and well provisioned.

Gen. Walker, with 400 men attacked the allies at St. George, gained the plaza, burned an important part of the town, and then retreated to Rivas, which Gen. Chamerro, at the head of 1200 men, had in the meantime attacked, and been driven back, with great slaughter, by Gen. Henningson.

Gen. Walker met them retreating, and they were consequently placed between two fires, and becoming completely paralyzed suffered immensely.

The Allies' loss by their own account amounted to three hundred and twenty-seven killed, and over three hundred wounded, while Walker estimates their loss at six hundred killed and five hundred wounded. He also states that his own loss amounted to only two killed, and twenty-one wounded. Walker had the dead bodies burned.

The sloop-of-war St. Marys is still at San Juan Del Sur.

It is reported that Canas, the Commander-in-Chief of the Allies, is under arrest, for making certain overtures with Walker. It is also rumored that Chillon had raised a body of men in Leon, and is about to join Walker, and that President Rivas has been assassinated. The last report is said to have been confirmed.

Col. Lockridge, who is stationed on San Juan river, had received another reinforcement of Texans, together with a large quantity of provisions and ammunition. His command garrisoned only two communications by water with Costa Rica, viz:—Two hundred and ten men at the mouth of the Serapiqui river, and one hundred and eighty-eight men at the mouth of the San Carlos river. The remaining one hundred and fifty-two are stationed in advance, under the command of Col. Lockridge, near the Machuca Rapids.

Col. Lockridge is said to have secured documents showing that the Costa Ricans had opened the transit route to the English.

The Costa Rican force at San Carlos was small, and Col. Lockridge was confident of taking it.

It is reported that the allies after being defeated by Walker had retreated to Missaya.

The Royal Mail Steamer New Granada had been boarded by the Peruvian steamer "Lao," in the interest of Vivanco, and plundered of $32,000 in specie, arms and provisions.

The sloop-of-war Saratoga had left San Juan for Havana.

A Man in the Rapids of Niagara—A Fearful Predicament—His Rescue.

The story of Joseph Avery, the unfortunate man who lived for a day clinging to a rock in the rapids above the American Fall at Niagara, will not soon be forgotten; and an occurrence of a very similar character happened on Tuesday last. A man named E. C. Taylor, a resident of West Winfield, Herkimer county, (a guest at the Ladow House,) descended the bank of the River, near the Suspension Bridge, probably for the purpose of viewing the Bridge from below. On reaching the bottom, he slipped, and fell into the water, just above the bridge and when discovered was thirty or forty rods below the bridge, near the shore, rolling over and over, borne along by the resistless current, until he caught hold of a large rock, and after some hard struggles succeeded in reaching the top. Alarm was immediately given in the neighborhood, and it was soon decided there was no way of reaching him but by means of a rope ladder. This was immediately procured, and after much hesitation, delay, and altercation, occasioned by the difficulty of determining where to place it, inasmuch as the man could not be seen from the projecting bank over his head, it was lowered to the distance of perhaps a hundred feet and became entangled among the rocks and trees.

It was at once decided that some one must go down to disentangle it. In a few moments, Willard R. Coburn, porter of the Ladow Hotel, volunteered his services, and proceeded to the place where the ladder was attached to the trees. He needed assistance, and soon two more brave men, Anthony Shiley and Natts Cranf, offered to go down. The three worked bravely for more than an hour in conducting the ladder, while men at the top carefully let it down. At length the waving of handkerchiefs and cheerings on the Canada side indicated to us that the man had sprung to the shore from the rock, and had begun to ascend the ladder. Cautiously, and with firm grasp and step, he climbed up three hundred feet, and was greeted by the shouts and acclamations of the hundreds of spectators who had assembled to witness the exciting scene. He was for a few moments borne on the shoulders of the excited multitude, all were so anxious to congratulate him.

The Kalloch Trial.—Boston, April 8.—The jury in the Kalloch case were discharged this morning, being unable to agree. They stood 8 for acquital and 4 for conviction.

AFFAIRS IN UTAH.

A letter from W. W. Drummond, United States Supreme Judge in Utah Territory, gives a sad picture of matters in that Territory. The following is taken from the letter:

The leading men of the church are more traitorous than ever. Only a few days since all papers, records, dockets, and nine hundred volumes of the laws, were taken out of the Supreme Court Clerk's office and burned. And this is not the only instance of the kind. I say to you again, and through you to the President, it is impossible for us to enforce the laws in this Territory. Every man here holds his life at the will of Brigham Young; and here we are without protection. I am firmly of opinion that Babbitt was murdered by Mormons under direction of Brigham Young, and not by Indians. Murder is a common thing here: and Mormons cannot be punished with a Mormon jury, witnesses, officers, and Governor to pardon. It is too cruel, and must not be endured. A man, not a member of the church, is murdered, robbed, castrated and imprisoned, solely for questioning the authority of the church. Persons are now in the Penitentiary, convicted before the Probate Judge, who are wholly innocent of any crime. Is there any other country where this abuse is or would be endured? Let all, then, take hold and crush out one of the most treasonable organizations in America.

A boy was caught in the act of stealing dried berries in front of a store the other day, and was locked up in a dark closet by the grocer. The boy commenced begging most pathetically, to be released, and after using all the persuasion that his young imagination could invent, proposed:

Now, if you'll let me out and send for my dad, he'll pay you for the berries and lick me besides!"

The appeal was too much for the grocer to stand out against.

Another Poisoning Case!

Lowell, March 27.—Suspicions have been aroused in this community that a case of husband-poisoning has taken place here. The victim of the tragic deed which is suspected to have been perpetrated, was Mr. Nathaniel Sweetser, late of this city, who deceased suddenly on the 20th of February, and was interred in a family tomb in the adjoining town of Chelmsford. A brother of the deceased, belonging to the State of New York, entertaining suspicions that all was not right in reference to the sudden death of his relative, has been instrumental in instigating an examination of the matter, and agreeably to his urgent solicitations, Dr. J. P. Jewett, a Coroner of Lowell, with a Jury of Inquest summoned for the purpose, yesterday afternoon proceeded to the tomb in Chelmsford, where the body of Mr. Sweetser was interred. They removed it to a schoolhouse in the vicinity: where an autopsy by Dr. J. C. Spaulding was made, and the stomach and viscera removed and sealed up for chemical analyzation. The Jury of Inquest was composed of the following persons: Dr. Joel Spaulding, Joseph Merrill, Calvin T. Chamberlain, William P. Brazer, Enoch Emery and Nathan M. Wright.

Dr. J. C. Bartlett, of Chelmsford, was also present, and assisted in the autopsy. Nothing of a positive nature of course was elicited by this examination, but I am informed that internally, where decay usually first commences in ordinary cases of deceased persons, there was not the slightest appearance of decomposition; a circumstance which may be an indication of the presence of arsenic. Deceased was fifty-two years old at at the time of his death. He was a small dealer in wood, resided on Howard street, and was a man of considerable property. He is said to have been at one or more times an inmate of the insane asylum. It is also said that he has complained of being unhappy and threatened to take his own life. His domestic relations are said to have been unhappy. Dr. Gates, recently from Manchester, attended him in his last illness, and assigned no cause for his death. His illness lasted only about 24 hours.

Coroner Jewett, accompanied by the brother of deceased, visited Mrs. Sweetser, the wife of deceased, yesterday morning, and informed her that an examination of the body of her husband was, in consequence of the suddenness of his death, &c., about to be proceeded with. She expressed her gratification that such was to be the case. No arrest has yet been made, nor was Mrs. Sweetser informed upon whom suspicion in the matter rested, but I learn this morning that she has retained the Hon. B. F. Butler to defend her in case of her arrest, and that she exhibits great anxiety about the matter.

As usual, various rumors tending to create suspicions of foul play are afloat in the community, but I refrain from giving them further currency at this stage of the proceedings. Mrs. Sweetser is said to be a woman of much intelligence and smartness, and of highly respectable connections.

Dr. S. L. Dana of Lowell, was this morning requested to make the chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach &c., but declined. They will be sent to some competent chemist in Boston for that purpose to-day or to-morrow. The jury of inquest adjourned yesterday afternoon to Friday, April 3.

Horrible Murder.

From the Washington (Pa.) Commonwealth.

It becomes our painful duty to record one of the most dreadful murders ever perpetrated in this region of country. Early on Monday morning, word was brought to town, by Archibald Allison, that Samuel H. White had been brutally murdered at his residence, in Chartiers tp., on the road leading from Washington to Steubenville, about five miles north of this place.—The house is situated on rising ground, about fifty yards distant, on the north side of the road, and is a new frame, and kitchen adjoining, with doors opening into each, on the upper side farthest from the road.

We repaired to the scene at an early hour, and there met with a horrible spectacle. On entering the house we found the murdered man in bed, just as he had been sleeping—for it is evident that he made no attempt to get up—the pillow and upper part of the bed was covered with blood, while his face and head were so disfigured with wounds and blood as to prevent his recognition.

Drawers had been rumaged by the murderers and left open; blood was sprinkled almost all over the room: the floor, the ceiling, the wall, the bureau at the foot of the bed, had all been spurted over; the blood-smeared axe, with which the deed had been committed, laid on the floor at the foot of the bed; and the corpse looked as if a very demon had been at work. The wounds, some half a dozen in number, had evidently been inflicted with the butt end of the axe, and were frightful to look at; the skull was broken in several places, while the lower jaw was broken in front.

It is not certainly known what amount of money has been taken. Mr. White was a young man, much esteemed in the neighborhood where he came from, and his untimely end will be regretted by a large number of friends. He leaves a young wife and two small children to deplore their loss. He had but recently purchased the farm on which he resided, and the murderers were no doubt instigated to the commission of the deed with the supposition that he had considerable money about him to pay out on the 1st of April. No arrests have been made.

"Only Prayers."—Some persons never go to church except when there is a sermon. "Only prayers!" But does not Christ say that his house "is the house of prayer!"—a place where prayer not only is made, but answered? And have we not the example of the apostles for, going up to the temple to pray? What are those that they are so neglected? They are not in a foreign language; nor does the minister omit anything essential: on the contrary, they comprise everything necessary for public devotion, for the people have met together "to render thanks for the great benefits received at God's hand, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy Word, and ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul." Now one would think that if all this were done sincerely, a great deal would be accomplished. Archbishop Leighton says in his charge to the clergy, 1662: Whatsoever ministers do, they should beware of returning to their long expositions, besides the sermon, at one and the same meeting; which, besides the tediousness and other inconvenience, is apt to foment in people's minds the strange prejudice and proud disdain they have taken against the scriptures read without a superadded discourse. Truly, if those who object to "only prayers," would only make the experiment of entering more fully into their spirit, every objection would be silenced by their beauty.

Dr. Johnson said the reason why he attended week-day prayers was, that so few being present, his presence was more serviceable than on other occasions of worship: but, for this reason of the Doctor's, most persons stay away.—Penny Post.

Preserves in Tin Cases.—The New Bedford Mercury learns that a lady in that city was badly poisoned a few days since, by eating a few spoonsful of preserved whortle berries, which had been put in a tin case. The liquid from the berries had forced verdigris on the surface of the metal. For several hours the lady above mentioned remained in a nearly unsensible condition and was with difficulty brought to.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT ON THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAIL-ROAD.

We learn from a gentleman who arrived yesterday from La Salle, that a frightful accident occurred on Thursday morning, on the Illinois Central Railroad, near La Salle. The particulars are as follows:—

About 7 o'clock in the morning, the gravel train, loaded with laborers who work along the line, started from La Salle southward. The train crossed the bridge all right, and as the engine came on to the embankment on the other side of the bridge, it all at once gave way, and the whole train was precipitated a distance of probably twenty-five feet. Four men were killed on the spot, and one died a few hours afterward.—Eight others were severely injured, some with broken legs, arms, &c. The engineer and fireman escaped with their lives, though somewhat injured. The marvel is that so many escaped.

The heavy rains of last Sunday, along with the general thaw that ensued, had so softened the embankment that it appeared as soft and as incapable of bearing up a train as the softest kind of mud. Whenever the engine came off the bridge, it seemed as if it had fallen over a precipice.

But disastrous as the occurrence has proven, it seems providential that it is not much more fatal. The passenger train that ought to have passed over the road at that point on Wednesday night, by some trivial accident was delayed, and did not arrive at the fatal spot till after the gravel train was wrecked. As it was loaded with passengers, boxed up in close cars, the sacrifice of life that would have attended its attempt to cross must have been much larger.

Our informant did not learn the names of the dead and injured. They were all Irishmen.

Murder of a Wife and Burning of her Body.—The trial of James M. Ward, for the murder of his wife, at Sylvania, Ohio, resulted in his conviction, the jury deliberating but a few minutes upon their verdict. The Toledo Blade says:

The murder is one of the most brutal, horrid and disgusting, in all the annals of crime. A husband not only murders his wife, after cold-blooded premeditation, but he sits up at nights, with his door locked, cuts her into small pieces, and burns up her remains in the stove. This process occupied several days, in which time he drew largely on the shops around for shavings, and the unsavory scent went forth from the chimney, and filled the nostrils of those who happened to be in that vicinity. Ward occupied himself with this disgusting and appalling work, till he thought he had obliterated all traces of his guilt, and then defied detection. But "murder will out." It is amazing what an array of facts, unimportant in themselves, have been brought to bear on the case; and an irresistible conviction of guilt they carry to the mind. Ward has not yet had his sentence, but he will be hung by the neck till he is dead. We hear it said that this will be the first case of capital execution in this county.

A BIT OF ROMANCE.

Five or six years ago, a rich Louisiana planter died, leaving an only heir, a daughter, who was not quite seventeen years old. She, together with her fortune, was placed in the charge of a guardian, who was distantly related to the family. Her fortune, and her remarkable beauty, attracted the attention of many suitors, among whom was an accomplished young man from St. Louis, whose only wealth was his profession. His handsome person and fascinating manners won the lady's affections; and, without the knowledge of her guardian, they were privately married.

Shortly afterwards they removed to St. Louis, where they lived together happily for a time, and a bright future seemed to be before them.—At the expiration of a year, the lady having attained her majority, they returned to New Orleans to claim her fortune, and live in the splendid old family mansion. They were coldly received by the occupant who deliberately informed them that the estate had passed into other hands. They at once applied to the law for redress, and going through the protracted formalities of two or three fruitless suits, they were left penniless, and obliged to abandon the case. Friendless and dispirited they returned to St. Louis, where the husband, like many other husbands, tried to drown the remembrance of his disappointment in the fatal cup. His wife entreated and admonished in vain. A separation was the consequence, and the husband became more reckless and dissipated than ever. Driven at last to desperation, the wife applied for a divorce, obtained it, and retired to a convent.—This restored the wrecked man to his senses; he abandoned his former associates, returned to the path of virtue, and became a respectable and industrious citizen.

A few months ago, the lady received a letter from the son of her former guardian, informing her of his determination to make full restoration, closing with an appeal to her to forgive his misguided parent, and to come to New Orleans and receive her fortune. She at once complied with the generous request; and all her inheritance, together with the accumulated interest, was restored to her.

Now comes the strangest part of this extraordinary affair. The young man offered her his hand in marriage, and plead with all the earnestness of impassioned love. He reminded her of all their childish attachment, of his deep anguish when she became the wife of another, and of the long years of his silent sorrow. All these remembrances came up before her mind; and gratitude plead eloquently in his favor: but at last the wife triumphed over the womam. She thanked him, and gave him her simple blessing—told him she had loved but one, and could never love another. She entreated him to take back all her fortune, and permit her to return to the convent. Finding her resolutions unalterable, he consented, on condition that she should postpone her return one month. He immediately wrote to the former husband, who was ignorant of what had transpired, offering him a first rate situation, on condition he would come immediately. The letter was signed by the principal of a well known firm, who was apprised of every circumstance in the case. As soon as the letter came to hand, the overjoyed recipient took passage for New Orleans. He presented himself at the place designated in the letter, and at once made himself known by showing his credentials. He was conducted to the residence of the generous heir, where, he was informed, the writer of the letter waited to receive him. His name was announced, and he was conducted into an elegant parlor, and there, alone, he met the woman whom he had neglected and dishonored—the woman who had been forced to leave him, but who would not quite give him up.

A few days afterwards, the city newspapers announced the marriage of Mr.——— and Mrs. ———. The estate was restored to the lawful owners, and the reconciled couple, made wiser and better by adversity, are now living happily together.

It is good to turn sometimes from the cares and turmoils of politics, and contemplate human nature rising up from the depths of misery and despair, casting aside selfishness, and reaching that standard of purity and happiness which so few attain.

Sad Bereavement.—Sunday afternoon witnessed a melancholy cortege in the streets of N. Orleans. It was a long and sad procession following to the grave the mortal remains of two of the daughters of our esteemed townsman, Dr. William Ruston. They died, one at midnight on Saturday night, and the other a few hours later, of that dreadful disease, the scarlet fever, and now lie entombed together: one a young wife, who leaves her infant sick of the same disease; the other a promised bride, whose wedding was to take place in a few days. They were the grace of the best society in New Orleans, lovely, well nurtured, refined and tenderly beloved—but a week ago the centre around which they clustered the most joyous hopes of fond hearts for the future; now the tenants of a common grave, watered by passionate tears. The news of this terrible affliction, as soon as announced on Saturday morning, saddened the whole city. We have never witnessed a more profound and universal sensation.—Pycaune.

The Tariff of 1846.

☞The name of Geo. M. Dallas has been denounced from one end of this Commonwealth to the other, during every campaign for the last ten years, in consequence of his vote in favor of the Tariff of 1846, and now, the very men who have thus been denouncing him, nominate as their standard-bearer for Governor, the only man from Pennsylvania in the lower House of Congress, who cast his vote in a similar manner! This is something for honest men to ponder over.

Portage Superintendent.

☞The Hollidaysburg Standard, one of the most able, radical, and influential democratic papers in Pennsylvania, has, for some time, complained bitterly of certain appointments made by the Canal Board in that locality, to which some of the democratic papers have taken exception, and arraigned the Standard as dealing unjustly towards the officers controlling the public works. In replying to a criticism of this character, the Standard of last week charges, in unequivocal terms—

1. That James Bryden, the present superintendent of the Portage road, is incompetent for the post, which can be proven by all the business men in Hollidaysburg, and that, were it not for his assistant, the road could not be kept open.

2. That Bryden is no Democrat, and that he refused to give the most trifling sum towards defraying the necessary expenses of the campaign in that county last fall.

3. That he keeps in the employ of the Commonwealth both Know Nothings and Black Republicans to the exclusion of honest working Democrats.

4. That he does not profess to be a democrat, but declares openly that a man's politics has nothing to do with his appointment to office.

Now, if the facts above set forth be true, and we do not doubt them coming from the source they do, (and we may here say that we have heard the same charges from other gentlemen of unimpeachable integrity,) then the Canal Board owe it to their high position, as well as to the Democracy of the State, to abate the nuisance, for such this appointment and its fruits must be considered, unless it can be clearly proven that the charges preferred are not true. Personally, we have no reason to complain of the Canal Board; they have all treated us kindly and respectfully; but we would feel that we had proved recreant to our trust as a democratic sentinel did we fail to sustain a brother sentinel in the faithful discharge of his duty. The evils of which the Standard complains are intolerable; and no democratic editor will dare to take them up in the abstract and defend them. It is enough, in all conscience, for a democratic editor to live and work in such a political atmosphere as Blair, without being annoyed with officials destitute alike of brains and political integrity. If the Canal Commissioners desire the prosperity of the democratic party (and no one doubts it) they will promptly remove this miserable apology from the Superintendency of one of the most important improvements in the Commonwealth, and appoint an efficient, popular Democrat in his place.

The appointing power is liable to make mistakes in the selection of subordinates, but, when the fact is substantiated in any particular case, it is their duty, as honest men, to dispose of the rotten material by the quickest route possible. The Democrats of Blair, for good cause, demand the removal of Bryden—and they should not be treated with indifference.

MINISTERS.

☞It is not true that the democratic party ever objected to Ministers exercising the right to vote and express their political sentiments in language becoming their sacred calling. The democratic party did, however, object to Ministers taking an OATH among infidels requiring them to LIE and to violate the Constitution! They did object to Ministers attempting to control Congress in their associated capacity! They did object to Ministers haranguing the people from their pulpits in advocacy of the horrible doctrine that negroes were justifiable in cutting their masters throats if they could not obtain their freedom in any other way! They did object to Ministers advocating a dissolution of the Union as being a less evil than Slavery! But they never, at any time, or in any place, expressed a desire to curtail the legitimate political rights of the Clergy.—ABOLITIONISM, KNOW-NOTHINGISM, and all other INCENDIARISM, are works of the Devil, and do not come within the sphere of political principles, consequently Christian Ministers can have nothing to do with them, nor will they!—as we have abundant proof to show. The Baltimore Conference, at its late session, by a vote of 210 to 1, passed the subjoined resolution:

"Resolved, by the Baltimore Conference, in Conference assembled, that we highly deprecate the agitation of the slavery question, which has already resulted to the great detriment of the political and religious interests of the country."

And the following by a vote of 197 to 14:

"Resolved, That we will hereafter oppose with zeal any aggression which shall be attempted by the abolition agitators of the country."

This shews that the true Ministry consider the slavery agitation no part of our political system!

☞The Easton Free Press says "we cannot sacrafice our views of Americanism to aid Republicanism against Democracy."

☞The York Eagle says:—"Beware of wolves in sheeps clothing. Already the minions of Black Republicanism are scheming to deceive the honest yeomanry of Pennsylvania. Falsehoods, artfully framed, are told in honeyed words to unsuspecting Americans that Black Republicans and Americans are one. Out upon the foul libel."

THE COLD SHOULDER.

☞Gov. POLLOCK has appointed a Mr. Armstrong, of Lycoming county, (an old line whig) to the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge BLACK on the Supreme Bench! Desperate efforts were made by the abolitionists to induce him to appoint one of the men selected as candidates for this station by their late convention, but he declined to endorse the action of that body in terms too plain to be misunderstood, and it is the general impression that he will not vote for a man on the 'Wilmot Free-trade ticket,' but will quietly give his support to the Know Nothing ticket to be nominated at Lancaster on the 20th of May, unless, indeed, he should become so utterly disgusted with all their factions as to be constrained to vote the democratic ticket, which we do not consider altogether hopeless. In many respects, Pollock is a good man—he is certainly a gentleman in his personal relations—and his appointment of Dr. DE WITT, as Librarian, against the solemn protest of his political friends in both branches of the Legislature, clearly indicates that his better judgment is against the isms of the day. Had it not been with the view of reaching the gubernatorial chair, we do not believe that Gov. Pollock could ever have been prevailed upon to become a member of the midnight oath-bound party, which, we honestly believe, he now despises from the bottom of his heart. The appointment of that good man and faithful minister, Dr. DE WITT, having given mortal offence to the abolitionists, they determined to pass by his Excellency in their mongrel convention without condescending to notice him, a thing unparalleled in the history of this Commonwealth—for, it will be remembered by all, that no matter what the political complexion of the party in power, no State Convention ever before assembled at Harrisburg without making some allusion to the Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth, and more particularly at the close of his administration.

The Harrisburg Telegraph—the very same paper which, only a few years since, declared that the "name of Wilmot would forever stink in the nostrils of all true Whigs"—and asserted but a few weeks since that "Gov. Pollock presented a sorry spectacle" in view of his selection for Librarian—attempts to apologise for the omission of their convention to speak of his excellency on the ground that it was an "accident!" This is adding insult to injury; and makes the Governor of so little account that he was forgotten entirely by the abolition Patriots whose love for the negro absorbed all their affections, so that they could'nt think of a white man!

The News not Alone!

☞The Hanover Spectator, an influential Whig paper, printed in York county, and edited by Senary Leader, Esq. formerly of this place, declines to raise the Ticket headed by Wilmot, notwithstanding Fr. Jordan & Co. declare that "all, every one, of the opposition press, with the single exception of the Daily News, gives Wilmot a hearty and cordial support." By his extracts from the Daily News, Mr. Leader evidently favors the movement for an American Convention to nominate another State Ticket. The odor emitted from Wilmot's amalgamation doctrines do not appear to be as palatable to the union-loving Whigs as the "balm of a thousand flowers." The News in referring to the abolition presses engaged in misrepresenting his course, denominates their editors as "whelps and puppies of low degree, a pack of mongrels in possession of lamp black, oil and rags, who make such use of these materials as to disgrace and degrade them." After Francis takes a few doses such as contained in the following extracts from County Conventions, he will begin to believe that the News has been and still is uppermost in the affections of what he terms the "American" party:

From the Daily News.

"American Meeting in Montgomery County! The Harrisburg Union Bogus Convention repudiated!!

A large and enthusiastic American meeting, agreeable to a call previously issued, was held in the Old Fellows' Hall, Norristown, on Tuesday evening, the 7th inst. The following officers were unanimously elected:

President—Major A. W. Shainline.

Secretary—Charles Hunsicker.

The President, on taking the chair, briefly stated that the object of the meeting was to repudiate the nominations of the Bogus Union Convention, which was held at Harrisburg on the 25th day of March last.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, viz: R. T. Stewart, Gen. William Schall, Wm. H. Shuglieff, Charles Massey, and Alfred D. Briggs who reported the following:

Resolved, That we repudiate the recent nomination of David Wilmot as one "not fit to be made"—as an insult to the laboring classes of our State—as a blow struck at the rights of Pennsylvania mechanics and laborers, in favor of British Free Trade, in thus rewarding the man who basely sacrificed them in 1846, and as an attempt to Abolitionize and destroy the American party—that we repudiate the platform of the Convention as a weak compound of Republicanism and deception, upon which no true American can stand.

On motion it was Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the National Defender, of this Borough, the Daily News, of Philadelphia, and such other papers as choose to copy. On motion adjourned.

ANDREW W. SHAINLINE, Pres.

CHARLES HUNSICKER, Secretary.

American Meeting in Jefferson County.

At an American meeting held in the borough of Brookville, on Saturday the 4th of April, James M. Taylor was appointed President, S. C. Arthurs and R. J. Espey, Vice Presidents, and E. S Bishop, Secretary. The following resolutions were read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the nominations made by the Convention held at Harrisburg, on the 25th ult., are sufficient to satisfy us that that Convention was Republican in principle, although "Union" in form, and for which reason we cannot, nor will we support the candidates there nominated.

Resolved, That we do not believe in the union of antagonisms, for the mere purpose of securing the spoils of office.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Jefferson Star, Philadelphia Daily News, and all papers favorable to the cause.

E. S. BISHOP, Secretary.

American Convention in Allegheny County!

The Americans of Allegheny county have had a County Convention, and elected the following delegates to an American State Convention, to nominate candidates for Governor, &c.:

Senatorial Delegates—Daniel McCurdy, J. H. Irwin.

Representatives—Ephraim Jones, J. H. Rowand, Henry Philips, C. Chadwick, Samuel Beitler.

Americans in Motion!

Our advices from different parts of the State are that the Americans are every where indignant at the bold-faced swindle attempted, in passing off Wilmot as their candidate, and are actively engaged in seconding the movement for a State Convention to place an American ticket in nomination. Such an act as the nomination of Wilmot was only wanting to open their eyes to the real aim and purpose of the Black Republicans, and they are now ready and anxious to cut asunder all connection with them.

In a number of counties meetings have already been held, and delegates appointed. Among those having already done so, are the counties of Allegheny, Jefferson, Montgomery, and some others.—Daily News.

☞The Administrators of Adam Snider deceased, offer a very valuable farm at public sale, on next Wednesday, as will be seen by reference to an advertisment in the proper column. Purchasers of Real Estate would do well to give it their attention.

Bedford High School.

☞Mrs. SPOTSWOOD, wife of Rev. Mr. Spotswood Pastor of the Methodist Church of this place, a lady of handsome accomplishments, has, we are pleased to learn, become connected with the Bedford High School as an instructress in some of the branches to be taught. The Lady alluded to in the advertisement, from Vermont, has also arrived, and, to-day, the Institution is to be fully opened in all its departments. Some who intended to send their daughters away to be educated, have wisely come to the conclusion that they can do as well, and perhaps better, at home than elsewhere, and have abandoned their former arrangements; which, however, were made before the school assumed its present shape.

Mr. Aughinbaugh is entitled to the highest regards of our citizens for the zeal he manifests to get up an Institution which cannot fail to reflect honor upon our town and county. The inquiries making from a distance touching this school, evinces the fact that it will be well patronized by other counties.

DAVID WILMOT.

What was Thought of Him in 1846.

That our readers may know the political position of David Wilmot in 1846, and what was thought of him then by those who have now nominated him as their candidate for Governor, we republish the following extracts from the Harrisburg Telegraph, then edited by Theo. Fenn, Esq:

From the Harrisburg Telegraph, July 15, 1846.

The British Free Trade Bill.

It must be gratifying to every friend of his country, and particularly to every Whig, to know that of the 114 votes which were given in the House, for the administration or British FREE TRADE bill, 113 were locofocos, and but one Whig, and he from the Loco Foco State of Alabama.

Of ninety-five who nobly stood up for the Tariff against the Free Trade policy, seventy-one were Whigs, six Native Americans, and but eighteen Locofocos, eleven of whom were from Pennsylvania, four from New York, two from New Jersey, and one from Maryland.—BUT ONE BRITISH FREE TRADE TORY WAS FOUND IN ALL PENNSYLVANIA! AND THAT WAS WILMOT OF BRADFORD. The execrations of every friend of Pennsylvania will fall upon and follow him until he reaches that place "where the worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched."

From the Harrisburg Telegraph, July 8, 1846.

What will the People of Pennsylvania say to this outrage upon her faith, her interests and her honor? Will she turn and lick the hand that dealt the blow, or will she spurn the treachery, and say, henceforth, let there be but one party in this State, and that devoted solely to the interests, the prosperity and the welfare of our citizens? Will she not say, henceforth, Southern Free Trade shall be made to feel our weight, united, and standing shoulder to shoulder in our own cause, and in that of our country! Hereafter, let there be but one party in the Keystone: one strong, united, indivisible party, with the determination to ask nothing but what is right, and submit to nothing that is wrong.

We rejoice in being able to record the votes of all the Locofoco members in Congress, from the State, excepting Wilmot, of Bradford county, against the repeal of the Tariff of 1842.—This recreant son who basely betrayed her interests and voted with the Free Traders, should be banished from her territory. His infamous treachery should be revenged by disowning and turning him upon the South for support. His name as his deed will stink in the nostrils of every true-hearted Pennsylvanian forever.

Mark, reader, this same David Wilmot, who but ten years ago, while a representative in Congress, from Pennsylvania, stood up solitary and alone in the Pennsylvania Delegation, as the betrayer of the industrial interests of the State, is now nominated for Governor, and you, who are in favor of the Protection of Home Labor, are asked to vote for him.—This same man, who then sacrificed your interests and those of the State, and was denounced for it as reckless and faithless, "whose treachery should be revenged by disowning and turning him upon the South for support," is now, as if to mock the cause of Free Labor, nominated as the especial champion of Freedom! He whose name, as his deed, it was prophesied would "stink in the nostrils of every true-hearted Pennsylvanian forever," has washed himself of all his political sins, and atoned for his treachery, by becoming an Abolition Agitator, and is now considered a fit man for Governor.

Times change, and so do men, but principles are eternal; and as long as the people of Pennsylvania are true to the principles and policy they have ever cherished, as essential to the prosperity of the State, so long will they repudiate with scorn the nomination of Wilmot, the betrayer of the cherished policy of the State, whose very name, it may in truth be said, "will stink in the nostrils of every true-hearted Pennsylvanian forever"—Phila. Daily News.

A BITTER PILL.

The Lewistown Aurora, an American journal whose editor favored the Union movement, does not relish the manner in which the whole affair was turned into Black Republicanism. It says:

In another column of to-day's paper will be found the proceedings of the Convention which assembled in Harrisburg on wednesday last, to nominate State officers, in opposition to the Loco Foco party. This body has not acted as we hoped it would have done. Its nominees, especially that for Governor, will, in all probability, receive a determined opposition from the straight-out Americans, who in reality hold the balance of power between the Democrats and Republicans. We shall, for the present, keep out of the contest, hoping that something may yet be done to bring all the elements of the opposition in this State together.

The nomination of Wilmot for Governor, we consider decidedly a bad one for the consummation of our most cherished hopes. Last Fall we were heartily sick of triangle fights, and yet we have a fair prospect of having the same thing re-enacted at the coming election, the result of which it is an easy matter to foretell.

A Clincher for the Woollies.

Before wasting too many crocodile tears over the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, the Black Republicans had better explain to the public how they happened to exclude black men and mulattoes from citizenship, in their famous Topeka Convention? That constitution to which they cling, "like drowning men to a straw," confers the right of suffrage on free white men, on "every civilized male Indian who has adopted the habits of the white man," but not on negroes or mulattoes. What have the "freedom shriekers" to say to this?—Will our "talented and eloquent Kunkel" dwell a little on this fact in his next speech? It needs refutation or explanation!—Democratic Union.

COL. JOHN C. EVERHART.—This gentleman, for some years past a resident of Martinsburg, in this county, has located at Hopewell, in Bedford county, where in connection with others, he goes extensively into the mercantile business. The Colonel is one of the most energetic business men we have ever had among us, and we certainly regret his loss—not merely on account of such qualifications, but more on account of his indomitable and iron-nerved Democracy, which never flagged. During the late campaign, the Colonel was one of the wheel-horses of the party, and his exertions in behalf of Democracy told with effect at the North Woodberry poll. The people of Hopewell will find in Colonel Everhart a modest and retiring man, but a whole-souled fellow, and a Democrat of the first water.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

☞We re-publish the above paragraph with pleasure, and cheerfully endorse every word of it. We rejoice to record Col. EVERHART as a citizen of Bedford county, and wish him great prosperity in business.

Pardon of Keys.

On Friday afternoon last, while an Argument Court was in progress, the lawyers and loungers were somewhat taken aback by the appearance of the ex-Rev. W. S. H. Keys, the distinguished Know Nothing orator, inside of the railing of the Court Room. The lookers-on were not kept in suspense long, for shortly after his arrival, Lawyer Blair arose, and read a paper bearing the broad seal of the Commonwealth, which proved to be a pardon for Keys!

The history of the case, we presume, is well remembered. Keys was indicted and tried for assault and battery, with intent to commit a rape but was convicted of assault and battery alone. A motion was made for a new trial, but refused by the Judges, and Keys was sentenced to three months imprisonment. In the face of this refusal, Judges Jones and Caldwell both, according to the pardon, signed a petition, for the pardon of Keys, on the plea that they believed him innocent! It is really strange what latitude can be given to the conscience of some men in behalf of a political friend.

The entire imprisonment of Keys was a farce. He was under no restraint whatever—lived in the Jailor's parlor, and fared sumptuously on the best the market could afford. Under such circumstances, he should have been made suffer out his time, more especially when we remember that Gov. Pollock declared, at the beginning of his administration, that no pardon would be granted, unless notice of the intended application was published in the papers. This rule was not complied with in the case of Keys.—His Excellency, no doubt could discriminate in favor of so distinguished a martyrr.

We presume we shall next hear of the immaculate Keys on the stump, expounding the code of ethics adopted by the pure and immaculate party.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

Look at Home!

One of the objections made to the decision of the Supreme Court, in the Dred Scott case, is that it declares negroes not to be citizens.—There is nothing either novel or monstrous in this. Our own State Constitution, under which our own Black Republicans "live, breathe and have their being," virtually declares the same doctrine. Negroes are not citizens in the State of Pennsylvania—none but free white men are; and yet our virtuous Republicans pass over this fact, and indignantly assail Judge TANEY, a man whose character stands above reproach, and whose ermine has never been soiled by a single corrupt act, for expressing an opinion in 1857, which the Constitutional Convention of Pennsylvania declared as early as 1838. Ye generation of vipers! look at home. "Pluck the beam from your own eyes," before you put on spectacles to discover "the mote in others," and then hurl your thunder bolts against the Court for pronouncing the Missouri Compromise unconstitutional; when their old Federal fathers opposed its enactment on the same ground in 1820, and burnt in effigy DAVID FULLERTON and others who helped to pass it. To what monstrous wrongs and gross absurdities will not blind fanaticism lead?—Democratic Union.

HON. WILLIAM B. REED.

A high compliment has been paid to the city of Philadelphia in the tender of the mission to China, to one of our distinguished citizens, the Hon. Wm. B. Reed. We are gratified at this evidence of the appreciation of the services rendered by the leaders of the Old Line Whig party during the late struggle for the Union and constitution. Mr. Reed has hitherto occupied a prominent position in the Clay Whig party. When the late crisis came, when disunion and treason were rife in the northren portion of our confederacy, Mr. Reed, in common with the true patriots of his party, rallied in their strength to save their country from the impending peril. Their patriotic exertions were crowned with success. The fanatics were defeated; and their mad schemes were disappointed; truth, justice and right gloriously triumphed in the election of James Buchanan to the Presidency. No one labored more industriously to accomplish this important result than the gentleman to whom has been tendered this high post of honor and trust.

That Old Line Whigs have strong claims upon the friendly consideration of the Democratic party, for their services and sacrifice during the late Presidential campaign, no one can entertain the slightest possible doubt. That Mr. Buchanan fully appreciates the obligations we are under to this great wing of the Union and constitution, is clearly indicated by the offer of foreign missions to Messrs. Clay and Reed. We honor him for the course he has thought proper to pursue in relation to this important matter. The Old Line Whigs, who so nobly sacrificed their party prejudices when the country was in such fearful jeopardy deserves the lasting tribute of our gratitude and respect. That their claims to public consideration are fully recognized by the leaders of our party, we are most happy to acknowledge.

The mission to China is one of the highest, importance at this particular crisis in the affairs of that country. Great firmness, sagacity and prudence, will be required on the part of the Minister from the United States. Few positions involve higher responsibility, or require a higher order of talents, than the one now under consideration. We believe that the great interests of our country and the honor of the nation, will be perfectly safe in the hands in which they are about to be entrusted.

It is understood to-day that Mr. Reed will accept the mission.—Philadelphia Argus.

☞We are authorized to announce JNO P. REED, Esq. as a candidate for Prothonotary, &c. subject to the decision of the Democratic county Convention.

☞Cadwalader Evans, Esq., will be a candidate for re-nomination for the office of County Commissioner, he having been elected for the short term of one year.

The Governorship of Kansas.

The following is the letter of the Hon. Robert J. Walker accepting the appointment of Governor of Kansas:—

WASHINGTON, March 30, 1857.

JAMES BUCHANAN, President of the United States:

My Dear Sir—I have at your request reconsidered my determination, as announced to you, declining your tender of the office of Governor of the Territory of Kansas. In view of the opinion now presented by you, that the safety of the Union may depend upon the selection of the individual to whom shall be assigned the task of settling the difficulties which again surround the Kansas question, I have concluded that a solemn sense of duty to my country requires me to accept this position. I am brought to this conclusion with an unaffected diffidence to my own ability, but with a fervent hope that the same overruling Providence which has carried my beloved country through so many perils, will now attend and direct my humble efforts for her welfare, and that my course will not be prejudged by any portion of my fellow citizens in or out of Kansas.

I understand that you and all your Cabinet cordially concur in the opinion expressed by me, that the actual bona fide residents of the territory, by a fair and regular vote, unaffected by fraud or violence, must be permitted in adopting their State constitution to decide for themselves what shall be their social institutions.—This is the great fundamental principle of the act of Congress organising the Territory, affirmed by the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, and is in accordance with the views uniformly entertained and expressed by me throughout my public career.

I contemplate a peaceful settlement of this question by an appeal to the intelligence and patriotism of the whole people of Kansas, who should all participate freely and fully in this decision, and by a majority of whose votes the determination must be made, as the only proper and constitutional mode of adjustment. I contemplate no appeal to military power, in the hope that my countrymen of Kansas, from every section, will submit to a decision of this matter by a full and fair vote of a majority of the people.

I will go, then, and endeavor thus to adjust these difficulties, in the full confidence so strongly expressed by you, that I will be sustained by all your own high authority, with the cordial co-operation of all your Cabinet.

Very respectfully, your friend,

R. J. WALKER.

Frightful Accident on the Columbia Railroad.—A frightful accident occurred on Monday afternoon, on the Columbia Railroad, near Oakland, in consequence of the collision of the freight trains. Four cars were demolished, two or three injured, and one of the locomotives destroyed. The "Buchanan" was thrown completely across the track, the two north rails of which were torn up for a distance of twenty yards. The fireman, Mr. John Heston, residing at the "Gap," was thrown from his position on the south track: when the heavy truck fell upon his breast killing him instantly. We learn that he leaves a wife and family. The engineer remained at his post until the engine was a complete wreck, and in fact he did not leave, as an informant states, until she was landed across the railroad, and her cabin-top stove in. Some of the brakesmen were also thrown from their places, and such was the violence of the collision, that one person was thrown over the telegraph wires, none however, strange to state, were very seriously injured.

The "slow" line was detained until nearly 12 o'clock, last night. The "lightning" line was also detained, while the emigrant trains were laid over at the "Steamboat Station."

It is said that several trains, from some unexplained cause, stopped at a curve while on their way down, when another train approaching, ran into them. The flagman, a colored person, failed to give the signals to which cause is attributed this sad accident. Upon seeing the terrible consequences of his conduct, the fellow immediately fled; and has not since been heard of, notwithstanding the utmost exertions were made to secure his arrest.

The body of the unfortunate fireman, Huston, was soon after conveyed to his home, where he has an aged father at the point of death. Every attention was paid to his remains, and the utmost kindness shown all others, by persons residing in the vicinity of the accident.

MR KALLOCH IN THE PULPIT.—Rev. Mr. Kalloch appeared in the pulpit at the Tremont Temple yesterday, and took part in conducting the services. It caused much surprise from the fact that he is still under trial for adultery.—The church was crowded, in consequence of a morbid curiosity that existed to see the man.

We take the above from the Boston Post of Monday. It carries with it all necessary comment. It is a reproach and a disgrace to the city of Boston, that in the face of the lewd and licentious course of life of this professed minister of Christ, as has been proved by numerous witnesses, his corrupt practices wherever he has been able to procure a congregation, and while his trial is still in progress in a criminal court, with the most damning evidence against him, he still has the hardihood to appear in the sacred desk, and to take part in the services of the church. Boston should no longer, with its fair ladies partaking of the sacrament at the hands of the debauchee, lay claim to the intelligence, purity, and high fame of Athens, but seek rather to avert the fate of Gomorrah.—Phil. Argus.

DIED,

At the residence of S. Foster, on the 7th inst., after a short illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, aged 78 years, 7 months and 1 day. She was followed to her last resting place by her children and many friends, who deeply mourned her departure—but not as those who have no hope, for she bore her illness with christian fortitude, and died in great peace. ☞CHARLES B. PENROSE, one of the Representatives of the city of Philadelphia in the Senate of the State, died at Herr's Hotel, about two o'clock on Monday of last week. The deceased was a man respected by all and beloved by most of those who knew him. In point of intellect, he was, confessedly, one of the foremost men in the Senate, and he labored industriously to discharge his Legislative duties.

In Bedford on Saturday evening last, Mr. ROBERT GIBSON, aged about 72 years.

«In Peace, Prepare For war."—At this season of the year, the weather is very treacherous, and almost every one is certain to be affected more or less by coughs, colds, and affections of the head, which are peculiarly annoying to the healthy, and oftentimes fatal to the invalid and consumptive. Every thing around us wears such a pleasant and cheerful aspect, that we are apt to neglect the proper precautionary measures, and flatter ourselves that we shall escape, if others do not. Presently there occurs a sudden change in the weather; we begin to shiver with cold, and regret, when too late, that we had not anticipated it in season.

Now, the best possible way to avoid surprise is, to purchase a box of Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills without delay; carry them in your pocket, and take 1 or 2 Pills each day between meals. You will presently find your appetite vastly improved, and your system enabled to resist the most sudden changes. They are perfectly palateable, and may be swallowed with as much facility as so many sugar plums. They cause no pain or sickness at the stomach, and do not interfere with the transaction of ordinary business. For coughs, colds, sore throat, billious affections, pains in the head, breast, back, side, etc., they are entirely beyond rivalry. Their effects, indeed, are so certain, that a cure is warranted, or the money returned.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

There never has been a discovery made In Materia Medica, whereby pain can be so quickly allayed, and where parts in a high state of inflammation can be so rapidly reduced to their natural state, nor where wounds and sores can be so thoroughly and rapidly healed, and decayed parts restored without either scar or defect, than with DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.

In Cuts, Wounds, Sprains and Bruises—casualties to which children are constantly subject—the action of the genuine DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR, is ever the same! How much Pain and Suffering may not thus be prevented! Moreover, Life itself is often dependent upon having at hand the genuine DALLEY EXTRACTOR, and for particulars of which I respectfully refer to my printed pamphlets, for the truth of which I hold myself responsible.

No case of Burns or Scalds, no matter how severe, has ever yet, in any one instance, resisted the all-powerful, pain-subduing and healing qualities of the DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR.

No Pain Extractor is Genuine unless the box has upon it a Steel Plate Engraved Label with the signatures of C. V. CLICKENER & CO., proprietors, and HENRY DALLEY, manufacturer. Price 25 cents per box.

☞All orders should be addressed to C. V. Clickner and Co., 81 Barclay street, New York.
Feb. 20, 1857—2m.

In this Mammon-worshipping Age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, Dr. J. C. Ayer, whose name is now perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness, in this country. Knowing the unprecedented popularity of his medicines and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionaire, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his laborers, among the crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang for health.—We learned, that notwithstanding his vast business, and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he persists in making his preparations so expensively, that the nett profit is small.—American Farmer, Philadelphia.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

A new and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases.—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides, it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep-seated and formidable distempers which load the bearers all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the distinguished gentlemen who have testified in favor of the extraordinary virtues of these Pills we may mention

DR. A. A. HAYES, Analytical Chemist, of Boston, and State Assayer of Massachusetts, endorsed by

HON. EDWARD EVERETT, Senator of the United States.
HON. R. C. WINTHROP, Speaker House of Representatives.
ABBOTT LAWRENCE, Minister Plenipotentiary to England.
JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Boston.

DR. CHAS. T. JACKSON, Geologist to the Public Lands of the United States, Discoverer of the anaesthetic properties of Ether, Knight of the Legion of Honor, &c.

HON. H. J. GARDNER, Governor of Massachusetts.
HON. SIMON BROWN, Lieutenant-Governor of Massachusetts.
E. M. WRIGHT, Secretary of the State of Massachusetts.

Also, DR. J. R. CHILTON, Practical Chemist, of New York City, endorsed by

WM. H. SEWARD, Senator of the United States of America.
WM. L. MARCY, Secretary of State of the United States.
WM. B. ASTOR, New York City, the richest man in America.
H. J. RAYMOND, Lieutenant Governor of State of New York.
ODGEN HOFFMAN, Attorney General of State of New York.
PROF. JOHN TORREY, Prof. of Chemistry and Materia Medica, College of Physicians and Surgeons in the city of New York.

COLEMAN & STETSON, Proprietors of the Astor House, New York.

Also, PROF. J. M. LOCKE, Cincinnati, Ohio. Endorsed by

JOHN MCLEAN, Cincinnati, Judge Sup. Court of United States.
THOMAS CORWIN, Lebanon, Ohio, Secretary of Treasury of U. S.
ALEX. DE BODISCO, Ambassador of Russia.
HON. JOSEPH M. WRIGHT, Governor of Indiana.
JAMES HARLAN, Attorney General of Kentucky.
E. B. COLLINS, Secretary of State for Indiana.
R. PARRISH, Judge of Supreme Court, Cincinnati.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used; but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found, in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of noxious and injurious qualities, by this each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove, as they have proved, more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease, than any other pill known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate Formulæ by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If, however, there should be any one who does not receive them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his request.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries. The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was proposed as something more than a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are willing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—by their influence on the digestive organs, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and cure by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped, they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

Unprincipled dealers may attempt to put you off with other pills, on which they make more profit. Be not imposed upon by any such counsellors.

For minute directions, see wrapper on the Box.

Purify Your Blood.

The Wonder of the Nineteenth Century.

Important and of great Consideration to the Suffering.

T. A. HURLEY'S SARSAPARILLA.

OF all the remedies that have been discovered during the present age for the "thousand ills that flesh is heir to" none equal this wonderful preparation.—Only three years have elapsed since the discoverer (who spent a decade in studying, experimentalizing, and perfecting it) first introduced it to the public, and it is already recognized, by the most eminent physicians in all parts of the country to be the most surprising and effective remedy for certain diseases of which they have knowledge.

All other compounds or syrups of the root, have hitherto failed to command the sanction of the faculty, because, on being tested, they have been found to contain noxious ingredients which neutralize the good effects of the Sarsaparilla, and often times injure the health of the patient. It is not so with Hurley's preparation.

This is the pure and genuine extract of the root, and will on trial, be found to effect a certain and perfect cure of the following complaints and diseases:

| | |
|---|---|
| Affections of the Bones, | Habitual Costiveness, |
| Debility, | Indigeston, |
| Diseases of the Kidneys, | Liver Coplaints |
| Dispepsia, | Piles, |
| Erysipelas, | Pulmonary Diseases, |
| Female Irregularities, | Scrotula or King's Evil, |
| Fistula; | Syphilis, |

And all Skin diseases.

Besides curing the above, it is also known to be a great and powerful tonic, purifying the blood and invigorating the system.

In short, it is, without exception, in the cases mentioned, and its general effect on the system, the most efficacious as it is the most desirable remedy of the age. It is already extensively used throughout the country and is fast obtaining an European reputation. The instances of cures it has effected are daily coming to the proprietors knowledge, and he has no hesitation in recommending it to one and all who desire to procure relief from suffering. One bottle being tried, its effects will be too apparent to admit of further doubt.

Recollect Hurley's Sarsaparilla is the ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE in the market.

Price $1 per bottle, or six for $5.

☞ This medecine can be procured at all extensive Drug houses.
